

The Sun (Surya) is the star today. He's also called Ravi. The Sun is luminous, of course, and represents happiness, good health and prosperity.

*We all love Sundays!
Today is a day to just be happy!*

Copper is the color today.

Planet Saturn (Shani) rules on Saturday. He is the God of Justice - and he's very strict. He admires responsibility and hard work.

So Saturday is not all about fun and games - work a little before you go play.

Dark blue is the color today.

Planet Venus (Shukra) presides over Friday. Shukra is bright and clear and represents wealth, happiness, love and abundance.

Friday is therefore sure to be a good and happy day!

Clear white is the "color" today.
